

How do I apply to vote by proxy?

- 1 You must ask someone you know to be your proxy and vote on your behalf. Please note that a person can only be the proxy for close relatives and up to two other people at the same election.
- 2 Fill in the proxy vote application form. You must give a reason why you want to vote by proxy. You must get someone to support your application. You can find out who can do this below.
- 3 Make sure you complete all sections of the form and supply your date of birth and signature.
- 4 Return your form as soon as possible to the address shown below.

Please do not return your form to the Electoral Commission. Please note: your application form must arrive at your electoral registration office at least 11 working days before the election when changing or cancelling an existing postal or postal proxy vote and at least 6 working days before the election when applying for a new proxy vote.

Voting by proxy

If you cannot vote at an election in person, you can apply to vote by proxy (someone else voting on your behalf). You can use this form to apply to vote by proxy if your employment or your husband, wife or civil partner's employment means that you cannot vote in person. But, you must be registered to vote first.

Who can support my application?

- if you have an employer, your employer or another authorised person at your workplace
- if you are self-employed, a person who is aged 18 years or over, who knows you and is not related to you

What happens after I've returned this form?

- Your proxy must go to your local polling station to vote. If your proxy cannot get to the polling station, they can apply to vote for you by post. They can apply to do this up to 11 days before election day. Contact your electoral registration office for more details.
- Your proxy will be sent a proxy poll card, telling them where and when to vote on your behalf.

- You must let your proxy know how you want them to vote on your behalf, for example, which candidate or which party.
- If it turns out that you are able to go to the polling station on election day, you can vote in person as long as your proxy has not already done so and has not applied to vote for you by post.
- You will need to give your date of birth and signature on this application form. This information is needed to tackle fraud.

More information

If you have any questions about voting by proxy, go to www.aboutmyvote.co.uk or contact your electoral registration office.

In England and Wales, the electoral registration office is based at your local council. In Scotland, it may be a separate office.
