How to Comment :

Please note that comments must be made in writing.

For further details on how your information is used, how we maintain the security of your information and your rights, including how to access information we hold on you and how to complain if you have any concerns about how your personal details are processed, in relation to Neighbourhood Planning please visit see the privacy notice. Please also read the Confidentiality Statement.

There are several ways to make your comments:

- Complete a representation form
- Email your comments to: neighbourhoodplanning@hart.gov.uk
- Print a representation form or write a letter and post it to us at:
Neighbourhood Planning,
Planning Policy Team,
Hart District Council,
Harlington Way, Fleet, GU51 4AE

If you wish to be notified of the Council's decision to 'make' the Neighbourhood Development Plan (bring it in to legal force) please let us know.

All comments will be published in due course and will include your name and organisation (where applicable) only.

After the close of the consultation period, all representations will be forwarded to the Independent Examiner who will assess whether the Neighbourhood Plan meets the basic conditions as required by legislation.

After this, if all necessary processes and conditions have been met including passing a local referendum, Hart District Council will 'make' the Neighbourhood Plan so that it becomes part of the development plan for Hart District and used to determine planning applications in the locality.

For other documents including responses to the previous consultation these are available to view on Yateley Town Council's website : <https://yateley-tc.gov.uk/neighbourhood-plan/>

Kind regards
